NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Branch Office, 25 and 26 Bryan Bl'k,

CHICAGO, ILL.

☞ Purely Mutual, Equitable, Progressive and Secure. Twenty-seven years of Business Experience.

Assets, - $21,000,000!

Safely invested and rapidly increasing.

Within the last quarter of a century the business of this Company has embraced the acceptance of over ninety thousand men as members, the receipt of over $33,000,000 in premiums, the payment of nearly $8,500,000 in losses to the representatives of deceased members, and dividends actually returned (not promised) amounting to over $6,000,000 to the assured. At the same time the assets have accumulated and offer absolute security. The present business of the Company is represented in the receipt of ten thousand applications for Policies per annum, and an annual income of over $7,000,000.

All desirable forms of Insurance are granted on the most practical plans, embodying the well-known non-forfeiture feature originated by this Company in 1860

In addition to the above a new feature has recently been introduced by this company called the "Tontine Investment System," which combines the advantages of the Tontine Annuity and Life Insurance. Upon this new plan it is confidently expected that the dividends will far exceed those now declared by any other Company.

Further particulars in regard to this and all other plans of Insurance will be cheerfully furnished upon application to

A WOMAN'S WRITE.

Some editor who has been victimized writes as follows:

We shall never engage another woman to report gentlemen's fashions for this paper. We might have known that she would ignominiously fail; but she said gentlemen reported ladies' fashions, and she couldn't see why a woman shouldn't write up the masculine modes We couldn't see, either, so we gave her a carte-blanche to go ahead. And such a fashion article! Here is a specimen of the ridiculous stuff: A recherche spring overcoat for promenade has pretty ribbed stripes, with three ruffles on the tails, festooned with tassels, single breasted collars and rolling flaps on the pannier. A lovely dress-coat has three buttons and pockets in the rear, box-pleated on the hips, three-ply guipure lace on the extreme narrative, gored in a bunch and cut bouffant. Vests button up in front, same as last year, and have pockets, with imperial polonaise up the back, and oxydized buttons in double rows on the collar, with tab fronts. The shirt is cut tight at the knee, and open in the front or rear, as may be preferred, with percale bosom, trimmed passe menterie—four rows of magenta braid around the skirt, with hood at back, bound with galloon to match—Much depends upon the pantaloons. A gentleman's dress is very incomplete without trousers. These are of some subdued color, as London smoke, and should hormonize with—the—the neck fichu. They are cut bias in both legs, with deep frills to fall over the instep. The waist is garnished with a broad band of batiste, ecru facings, and buttons to match; the—. But that is enough. Anyone but a Sandwich Islander will see at a glance that these fashions are frightfully mixed. Who ever heard of trowsers being cut bias in the legs, deep frills falling over the instep, with a broad band of batiste—whatever that may be—and ecru facings and things? Rather than wear our pantaloons built in that way, we would go without, and encase our limbs in two sections of stovepipe.

AN AWKWARD OCCASION.

The most awkward occasion in a young-woman's career, says Blinkins, is when she returns from the wedding trip, and for the first time invites her friends to breakfast in her own house. She feels that all eyes are upon her, and that inquiring minds are busy shifting the sweet mysteries of her new life. In the tumult of her emotions she pours the hot water into the sugar bowl, sweetens John's coffee with salt, scalps the butter with the sleeves of her morning gown, waters the toast from the waste bowl, burns her fingers against the coffee urn, gets red in the face, and finally, unless she is a female of cast-iron resolution, bursts into a flood of tears which all the pangs of several day's accumulated hunger are impotent to assuage.

AMONG the guests at Hall, Austria, are quite a number of Russian and Austrian children, nearly all of whom can speak the English language. This is the case especially with the Russian and North German children. They are in charge of governesses, and their general conversation is in English, though they speak French and their native tongue also. A little Russian, less than 5 years of age, speaks very correctly in English, French and Russian. We were astonished a day or two since at hearing a voice under our window exclaiming, "William, if you do not come here this minute I will tell your mother." The children are taught to speak English, although their parents have no knowledge of the language. This would indicate that the next generation will at least speak our language more extensively than the present do. So much for President Grant's prediction.

WHAT WAS WANTED.—An exchange expresses it's solicitude for a young girl who was riding in the 'bus in this shameless manner As she gracefully threw her literary appendage up over her shoulder in order to sit down comfortably, it became slightly disarranged, and a copy of the Hawk Eye made its appearance. This wasn't so bad, but one particular advertisement read kind of funny, as follows, "Wanted—A good strong man, for general work—inquire of the undersigned on the premises." We felt like telling her to let down the awning, but we didn't know but that she was a traveling bulletin board, so we kept our mouth shut about it, and we always intend to

IN a certain town in Vermont, several instances have lately occurred where husbands who have lost their wives have married again within six to twelve weeks, hence a good deal of gossip, particularly among some of those women who "still live One of these, Mrs B——, at a quilting, said: "I do hope I may be spared till summer, for then I may have a tombstone over my grave before my man gets tied up again

ONE of the sewing girls employed in making the Graphic balloon is Miss McQuade, of Philadelphia, who is entirely blind. She does her work as neatly as her more fortunate companions.

Dr. January and Cancer

THE CELEBRITY of the January Infirmary, established in Murphreesboro, Tenn., in 1848, associated the above name with the treatment of Cancer until they became synonymous, both passed away with the war. But great discoveries, like truths, live forever. Dr. J. O. JANUARY, inheriting his father's talents, and improving on his experience, has achieved a success in advance of their former history, owing to his increased patronage he has permanently located in St. Louis; the numerous letters he is receiving, and large arrival of patients he is receiving, and large arrival of patients justify his move to this central point. We would advise all afflicted with Cancer, Scrofula, Fistula, Piles, &c., to apply to him, as he possesses perfect control of those diseases, without pain or the knife Address,

S. P. NICKEY.

HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX.

Gen. Clinton B. Fisk, of St. Louis, a high-minded and honorable gentleman, in an article contributed to Harper's Weekly, positively asserts that before Oakes Ames died he confessed to him (Fisk) that he (Ames) himself drew the money on the $1,200 check payable to "S. C. or bearer," and that Colfax had been greatly wronged in the matter. "In other words," says the Weekly, "according to General Fisk's statement, which we are authorized to use, Ames himself was convinced at last that the $1,200 check was never seen or heard of by Mr. Colfax." This statement, taken in connection with that recently published by Mr. Drew, that he saw Ames draw the money on that check, vindicates Mr. Colfax completely in all just minds.

THE method of inspecting wheat in St. Louis doesn't appear to give satisfaction to everybody. It is said by dealers that the grading runs so low that outside buyers are deceived as to the quality. It is suggested that instead of Nos. 1, 2, 3 rejected and no grade the inspection should be "choice," No. 1, No. 2, No. 3 and rejected. By the change wheat No. 2 under the present method would become No. 1.

SOME one sent Hon. Charles Francis Adams the platform of the Farmers and People's Anti Monopoly party of this State. Mr. Adams acknowledges the receipt, and remarks that he finds much to approve in the declarations of the Livingston anti-monopolists, but suggests that the country don't need profession so bad as practice.

It is stated that Tamberlik, the famous tenor, swallows plovers' eggs in Chablis wine to preserve his voice. Barkeepers, when plovers' eggs are not at hand, supply those of "Tip ups" more common, and the difference has not yet been discovered.

WILLIAM ALLEN, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Ohio, was several years ago dubbed "Petticoat Allen," for circulating the story that William Henry Harrison was a coward.

THE Jacksonville Journal, discussing the party of the future, says:

It will not be a Farmers' party. No party organized in the interests of any special class could stand the ghost of a chance in this great intelligent country of ours. The corner stone of the new party must be inscribed with the legend: "The greatest good to the greatest number;" and class interests and class distinctions will be buried too deep for recognition.

HORRIBLE CONFESSION OF A MURDERER—FIDELITY OF A DOG.

From the Harrisburg (Pa.) Journal.

On Thursday afternoon, Nelson Wade, who murdered Mrs. Isabella McBride in Lycoming county, made a confession, which he preceded with the remark that he didn't "care a d—n what was done with it." He admitted that he committed the murder, but denied that he shot Mr. McBride, as the coroner's jury decided. The fatal injuries was inflicted with a club. While at a farm house near by he learned where a trunk containing thousands of dollars were located, and about how much the couple were worth. On reaching the house on Tuesday evening he asked McBride for milk and was directed to the wife, who was about the cellar. She told him that he would have to pay if he wanted it.

The murderer continued: I returned to the house and found the door bolted. The old man finally opened it, and I put my foot to the inside. He struck at me, and I knocked him down with my fist, as well as silenced the dog, who made an attack on me. I then struck McBride three times with the club, and he crying murder. I hit him again. I then killed Mrs McBride with the stick, and coming back to the house found the old man up and the dog licking his sores. I gave him another beating, and broke open the trunk I was after. I had to make two trips to carry away the money in it. I got between $60,000 and $70,000. Will not tell where it is. When I die I will reveal it to a poor man, but no rich one shall have it. Two bags of the money are buried in Williamsport, two above and two below the city. I have killed several women before, and am willing to hang to-morrow.

The prisoner laughs and discusses politics with a relish.

ANOTHER ACCEPTANCE.

That venerable old fossil, known in political parlance as the Democratic party, has again accepted the results of the war. This time it accepts them in good faith. It goes through with this form of acceptance at least once a year. If a town clock is the objective point in the struggle, the Democracy must first announce to the dear people that it has accepted the results of the war. We are glad to hear this continued reiteration of the good intention of Democracy, for we shudder to think of the fearful consequences which would follow the party's refusal to accept the results of the war. But when they accept "in good faith," as they did at Baltimore, and more recently at Columbus, Ohio, we feel like ordering a hundred guns fired in honor of their conversion. But we find our benevolent impulses slightly checked by a faint suspicion that this "good faith" part of the programme is another wooden horse to be rolled into the gates of Troy. If the Democrats have honestly accepted the results of the war, have buried their ancient prejudices against the colored race, and believe in the Union as the rock of our national salvation, why do they wish to overthrow the Republican party, which gave to the results of the war the binding force of constitutional authority, that broke the chains of the slave, and made him a freeman, and that conducted the nation through a bloody rebellion; and, by its labors and sacrifices, made possible the Union we now enjoy. According to their professions, they accept these results, yet express deadly opposition to the party that brought them about. Before we join the Democratic party, or take stock in the professions made on the eve of an election, we shall ask for a few practical illustrations of their new departure. Hitherto, when a Democrat got far enough along to accept in good faith the results of the war, we knew where to look for him. He stood in the Republican ranks, the target of Democratic abuse, and no words were severe enough to condemn the man who left the Democratic party to actively labor for the very results which the party now professes to accept. If the Liberal Democracy have nothing better to offer than this acceptance of the war, the sooner they go into bankruptcy the better.

The party in power has done, and is continuing to do, more than these sham reformers promise, so that if they should obtain power, and carry out all they agree upon, the change could not be for the better. But who believes these Democratic professions? They are made to deceive, and are intended to be broken. The people know the party too well to again entrust it with power. It has been weighed and found wanting, and can never return to the places whence it was driven. It may seek the disguise of a new name, but the people will know it, and put their seal of condemnation upon it whenever it appears.

WE presume the following will be taken as authentic, coming as it does from such good authority—Pomeroy's Democrat:

Why is it that Democracy and drunkenness are so generally associated?—Go where you will, three out of five Democrats are afraid to be known as temperance men, as if it were a disgrace to be a temperance man, and a crime to discountenance the cause of nine-tenths of the misery and three-fourths of the taxation now cursing this country. The Democratic politician who is up for office flies from rum hole to grog shop, from saloon to sample room, to rally the Democracy.—Public meetings are held in whisky shops, and the very man who urges reform from public corruption, spends for whisky the last dollar he can borrow, and goes home drunk, or sees his audience in that condition. Hundreds of times have we been severely denounced for defending the cause of temperance, on the ground that without the whisky vote Democracy is a dead duck.

MULE VS. TIME.—The sporting fraternity and their friends at Bloomington, on Wednesday last, were somewhat taken down. A mare mule five years old, owned in the southeast part of McLean county, was matched to trot (on the fair ground track) three miles in eleven minutes and a half, which feat she accomplished in fine style under the saddle, carrying one hundred and twenty pounds, without breaking up or making a single skip, and at the end of the race was in fine condition, apparently not suffering as much as the horses did in running a single dash of eighty rods. Don't anybody bet against that mule.

MRS. WORKMAN ON DECK.—The grand jury of Woodford county, in their session held last week, indicted Mrs. Workman for the murder of Mrs. Hedges. The jury was composed of the very best men in the county, and their verdict was unanimous, with the exception that three members refused to vote. Mrs W. will, of course, be arrested at once if she can be found. She was last heard of near Lafayette, Ind., where she and her virtuous husband have resided since they were drummed out of Eureka.—Bloomington Pantagraph.

EVER since we have had any serious thought over the matter and manner of paying common taxes it has occurred to us that our legislators have chosen for us the most objectionable time of the year at which to foot up the amounts charged to our accounts for the privileges of good (or bad) government. Mid-winter is, in fact, about the very worst time that could have been selected.—Champaign Union.

Murder in Effingham County.

NEW YORK, August 11.—Doubts are still entertained as to the safety of our due steamship Arndt. On July 23d she was a little southeast of the great Newfoundland bank, and on July 24th it is assumed that the vessel seen from the Oceanic was the Arndt. She was to the east of the outer bank from that position. Her agents say she should have reached St. John in a few days, unless met with very adverse weather.

The various trade unions are making arrangements to hold a mass meeting in September to discuss, and if possible, bring about a more general observance of the eight hour law, which they claim is being more and more disregarded. Some of the workmen are in favor of a general strike, and wish to have those who now work on the eight hour system, cease altogether until employers who are unwilling to grant a reduction of hours of labor, shall be brought to terms. This has been denounced by others as absurd.

In the cigar manufactory of Steinhart Bros. & Schonlank, 566 Vessey street, this morning, Alfred Steinhart, a brother of one of the proprietors, who was standing behind Sam'l Schonlank, shot him and then swallowed the contents of a bottle of poison and shot himself. Schonlank will probably recover.

Alfred Steinhart who shot Schonlank this morning, came from Chicago a few weeks ago, and was learning the cigar business. The only reason that Schonlank gives for the shooting is that he told Steinhart to keep away from his employes, and had discharged him.

Schonlank is in a fair way of recovery but Steinhart still continues very low. There is no apparent reason in the relations of the two men for either the murder or suicide. One man cannot, and the other will not, tell anything about the affair beyond the bare statement than that there are family matters in the case.

NEW YORK, August 11.—Governor Austin and Mayor Brackett, of Minneapolis, have had two interviews at Long Branch with the President, regarding the Manitoba affair, and explaining the whole matter from beginning to end, dwelling especially on the cruelty with which the prisoners are treated by the Manitobian authorities. They also sought to impress upon the President the necessity for speedy action, as they feared that the people in Minnesota, unless something was done at once, would take the settlement of the case in their own hands. The President, according to a dispatch, gave the Governor and Mayor to understand that unless the matter was disposed of within a reasonable time, a demand, in unmistakable terms, would be made on the British Government, and that would be followed by further action. The President then asked the Governor and Mayor to reduce their statments to writing, which they did, and the paper was forwarded to Secretary Fish, who will be visited to-day by its authors.

EFFINGHAM, August 11.—A murder was committed in the southwest part of this county, two miles west of Edgewood, on Sunday afternoon. The murderer is a man named Melvin Duff, who has lived but a short time in the county. He borrowed a shot-gun of a neighbor ostensibly to shoot some kind of animal; loaded it heavily; was absent an hour and returned with one barrel discharged. Half an hour later an old man named Miller was found dead, with a charge of buckshot in his left breast, and a portion of the wadding with which the gun had been charged was found on his person. Duff, some two weeks before had married Miller's daughter against his consent, and they have had several difficulties since. The quarrel was resumed Sunday morning with fatal result. Duff fled, and has not yet been arrested. He is a small man, very dark complexion, dark hair and whiskers and about five feet two inches high.

ST. LOUIS, August 11.—Col. J. L. D. Morrison, of Ill., and his wife and wife's trustees, entered suit to-day in the U. S. Court to eject Wm. H. Benton, Geo. E. Lighton, J. R. Shipleigh and four other gentlemen from some four thousand acres of land in St. Louis county, claimed by plaintiffs.

WASHINGTON, August 11.—A special correspondent at Chatterton's landing Virginia, the scene of the Wawassett disaster, gives an account of his trip from here to that point. His report states that boatmen living on the line of the river say that the screams of women and children could be heard for miles around. On the way up to Chatterton several bodies of colored men and women were passed, which had been dragged ashore the night before. Miss McPherson, a passenger, described the scene of the burning boat as most terrible to witness. Flames burst out all around and swept aft, driving women and children over into the water. She saw four little children hanging on by their hands to the burning steamer, and one after another dropped into the water, the flames driving them off.

One of the worst features among the shore scenes yesterday was the disposition among both white and colored stragglers to plunder and rob the dead. Several instances of this kind were noticed, but could not be prevented.

The colored people were perfectly wild and no remonstrance on the part of the officers was heeded. They jumped into a boat, piling it full, and declared that it was the colored people's boat, refusing all whites admission.—When it went down all were dumped into the water together, and many others followed, being pushed overboard. The flames burst into the main deck, setting fire to the clothing of the women and children, who were hoping for some relief, but no one could pass the gangway for the flames.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., August 11.—A Tribune special yesterday, from Fort Garry, says: The other evening Cornish, Lord Gordon's counsel, accompanied by other gentlemen, waited upon his Lordship regarding his pecuniary matters. The latter demanded a reason for so untimely a visit, and after an explanation became engaged in an exciting altercation with his counsel, each expressing his opinion of the other, which to say the least, was not flattering to either. His Lordship shortly called his servant to advise Mr. Cornish to make his exit. The latter heeded the advice, but called again the next morning to renew his claim for some security for his anticipated fee as counsel, but found his bird had flown. Upon inquiry he found that Gordon was well on his way towards the Rocky mountains. A party arriving from the West, to-day, reports having seen the pretty bird 200 miles westward.

United States Consul Taylor was serenaded on Friday by the military band at Fort Garry, and three cheers were given by those assembled. The Consul responded in a brief speech.

In the decoration of the Court House for a bazar, in a spirit of courtesy to the American citizens, the stars and stripes were suspended side by side with the British flag. Upon the entrance of Attorney General Clarke, beholding the terrible disgrace to the emblem of his adoration, in virtuous indignation he ordered the ladies in charge to "haul down that flag." No one obeyed his command, and he retired with his feathers drooping.

The Sheriff will not allow the wives of the American prisoners to visit them but twice a week.

PARSONS, Ks., August 11.—The following dispatch was recieved here today from the Indian country: "The Downing Ross have beaten the reformers, but Bell has obtained letters written by Ross and Jones to Washington, showing treachery to the principles of the party.

McKee says that the full-bloods are indignant and aroused, and Ross and Jones must go to the brush to save their lives. I am informed that the death sentence has been passed by certain Indians upon Col. Boudinot, Bell, and others of the progressive and reform party. There is no question but anarchy and crime is largely on the increase, and that many of the best men in the Territory begin to believe that the only safety lies in a strong central Territorial form of Government under the protection of the United States.

The register shows that there was an average of sixty car loads of cattle a day shipped from Denison, Texas, over the M. K. & T. Railroad during the past week.

Texas papers say that the recent rains will make a full crop of cotton in Northern Texas.

CARLINVILLE, Ill., Aug. 11.—Shipman, in this county, is afflicted slightly with the cholera.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 11.—One fatal case of cholera occurred to-day. The victim died after eight hours' sickness, and was buried at 9 o'clock to-night.

ILLINOIS is almost out of debt. In 1860 the State owed nearly $12,000,000, and during the war the equipment of troops and similar objects cost large sums which temporarily increased the debt. All has been paid off since the war, however, excepting about $2,000,000, which the State is now ready to pay, but is unable to do so because the holders will not surrender their bonds, which are not yet due. The revenues are in excess of her expenditures, and Illinois finances are generally in a prosperous condition. Such are the results of Republican administration everywhere. Nearly all the States contracted debts under Democratic rules which, since the loss of political power by that party, their Republican successors have been paying off.

Dr. January and Cancer

THE CELEBRITY of the January Infirmary, established in Murphreesboro, Tenn., in 1818, associated the above name with the treatment of Cancer until they became synonymous, both passed away with the war. But great discoveries, like truths, live forever. Dr. J. O. JANUARY, inheriting his father's talents, and improving on his experience, has achieved a success in advance of their former history, owing to his increased patronage he has permanently located in St. Louis; the numerous letters he is receiving, and large arrival of patients justify his move to this central point. We would advise all afflicted with Cancer, Scrofula, Fistula, Piles, &c., to apply to him, as he possesses perfect control of those diseases, without pain or the knife. Address,

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

WE are authorized to announce Dr. IRA B. CURTIS as an independent candidate for County Treasurer.

WE are authorized to announce MRS. FRANCES L. HICKMAN as a candidate for Superintendent of Schools for Macon Co.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

...Refreshing—yesterday's showers.

...Complaints of drought reach us from various directions.

...We hope Mr. Probabilities will bring us a good rain before many days.

...Klingsford's Oswego Starches, at Imboden's.

...To make a tall man short—try to borrow five dollars of him.

...Circuit Court is in session again today, and will probably complete the work of the term this week.

...An experienced boy says he regards hunger and the chastening rod as about the same thing. They both make him holler.

...On account of the show no business was done at the council meeting last night. Everything has to stand aside when Barnum comes.

...Mr. D. P. Elwood is building a very neat and substantial dwelling on Eldorado street, one block west of his planing mill. It is rapidly approaching completion.

...A Mattoon cooper put his son inside a cask he was finishing, to hold the head up. At last accounts he was trying to find some way to get him out through the bung hole.

...The new brick dwelling of John Stare, being erected on the east side of Franklin street, just north of Stapp's Chapel, is about ready for the roof. It will be, when completed, one of the finest looking structures in that part of the city.

...We had hoped that yesterday would pass off without accident, but two unfortunates met with injuries that will cripple them for life, and perhaps prove fatal within a few days. Perhaps there was as little drunkenness as could well be expected in such a crowd, but we understand that both calabooses were full last night, and police courts will be likely to do a lively business to-day.

...Many persons who came over the different railroads yesterday report themselves as squeezed into about half their ordinary dimensions by the immense crowds that packed the cars. Forsythe, of the Mattoon Journal, shrunk about six inches in the girth.

Serious Accidents.—On last night, as passengers were getting on the cars to go east, after the show, a gentleman from Catlin by the name of Pusey made a misstep while getting on the train, and fell upon the track just as the cars were starting. The car wheel passed over his left arm near the elbow, and his left leg just above the ankle joint, crushing them to a jelly. Amputation of both arm and leg was performed by Drs. Chenoweth & Walston, and the patient is as comfortable this morning as could be expected.

At about the same time a man living north of the Woolen Mill, named Michael Leo, while assisting some friends to get upon the train, fell and fractured the bones of one knee, and was otherwise badly bruised by the cars. He lies at his home in a critical condition.

LATER.—Since writing the above we have learned the following further particulars in reference to the accidents mentioned: It seems that both men had stepped into the car to bid some friend good-bye who was going upon the train. While they were in the car the train started, and in their haste to leave the car they made a misstep and fell, with the result as above stated.

More Light Wanted.—There is a general complaint of a want of light upon the depot platform to enable parties to move about safely and see to get off and upon the trains after dark. It seems to us that the platform, where as many trains are passing after night as is the case here, should be well lighted, and a sufficient distance around the station, to enable travelers to get to and from the depot in safety. We don't know how much ground there is for complaint about this matter, at the station in this city, but speak of it as it comes to us from others. We presume there is no intentional neglect on the part of the railroad officials in this direction, and any deficiency that may have existed to the inconvenience of the traveling public, will be promptly remedied by simply calling attention to the matter.

Lightning Train.—On Monday, August 18th, the Paris and Decatur R. R. will commence running a lightning express train between this city and Indianapolis—The train will leave Decatur on the arrival of the St. Louis, Pekin and Quincy trains, at 11:30 a. m., and arrive at Indianapolis at 6:10 p. m.

Perfectly Happy.—Forsythe, of the Mattoon Journal, came over from that rural village to attend Barnum's great show. He investigated everything about the exposition, and could not get through expressing his astonishment at the size of the crowd, accustomed as he is to the little gatherings which are wont to assemble in the region of the sparkling "Ambraw." He was altogether unprepared, too, for the array of beauty which burst upon his enraptured vision as he entered the colossal hippodrome, and he enthusiastically remarked to a friend near him that it "beat anything he had ever seed this side of the Wabash." He spent some time in interviewing the fat woman, and endeavoring to find out whether she had "made all that size" on an exclusively vegetable diet, or whether she mixed bacon and 'possum fat with her greens. After finding out all the particulars he gravely went to Sprague, "the living skeleton," and advised him to try the same kind of feed. He seemed perfectly infatuated with the charms of the "Beautiful Circassian" (only 42 years of age), and invested his last fifteen cent scrip in one of her photographs. But when he came to feast his eyes on the indescribable pulchritude of the Albino girl his rapture knew no bounds, and we fear he has followed the show in order to be near this latest object of his adoration. Forsythe, farewell.

Another Smashup.—On yesterday, as Mr. Hiram Ward, Supervisor of Wheatland township, with his wife and children in his buggy, was crossing the railroad track on North Water street, some cars that were being coupled ran into his buggy, badly demolishing it and throwing himself and family violently to the ground. Mrs. Ward was quite seriously injured, but the other occupants of the buggy escaped with some slight bruises. This is another incident showing the importance of having a flagman stationed at this crossing. Trains are almost constantly passing there, and the City Council should insist upon this measure as indispensable to the safety of persons passing there with teams.

Barnum's Show.—The great event of the season has come and gone. We mean Barnum's Mammoth Show. To give a full description of it would require a full side of our paper. We content ourselves, therefore, by saying that it is simply immense. Everything is up to the advertisements, and the great concern moves with the regularity of clock-work. We are under obligations to Mr. D. S. Thomas, the gentlemanly press agent, for a full view and description of all the details of the establishment, and also to Mr. Hurd, Treasurer, who is also Mr. Barnum's son-in-law, for many kind attentions. Mr. Barnum makes it a point to have everything done on time, and all the performances are characterized by great regularity and precision, which adds greatly to the interest of the whole affair. Another thing characteristic of the establishment is the gentlemanly bearing of all the employes. Indeed, Mr. B. will not have a rowdy about his show in any capacity. Suffice it to say that everybody was more than pleased, and if the Prince of Showmen should come this way again, as we hope he will, he will be certain to have a bigger crowd even than this time. Fully eight thousand people crowded his immense canvass at each of the immense performances on yesterday.

Fault-Finders.—The world is full of chronic fault-finders. Nothing can please them. They take delight in growling and grumbling over everything they meet. If anything is good, they complain because it is not better. Humanity has no bright side to these grumblers. It looks black, blank, dreary, hopeless to them, from whatever point of view they examine it. They overlook the virtues of an individual, and hold up a single fault to judge his character from. They denounce a party as corrupt because a few rascals disgrace themselves by unworthy acts. The church is false because a few hypocrites find shelter within it. The world is on the high road to destruction and everything indicates the depravity of man. We do not envy the happiness of these growlers. Their unhappy frame of mind is about the only pleasure they enjoy. It may sound paradoxical, but the social misery they create is to them a source of enjoyment. A single hopeful heart is worth a regiment of fault-finders. Humanity has its bright side—beautiful and attractive to those who seek it. This world is alive with public and private virtue, and we should be ready at all times to foster and encourage this element of social comfort and public happiness.

County Fair.—We will take the liberty to remind the people of the county that their annual fair is near at hand. We hope every farmer and mechanic in the county will feel it a matter particularly incumbent upon himself to offer something for exhibition. We are informed that the ladies are busy at needlework, and that there is a prospect of a very fine exhibition of their skill in that direction. Our merchants should not forget that a good display of their wares will add greatly to the appearance and success of the fair. If all take hold of the matter as they may, we will have the best exposition ever given by Macon county, and one that will be equal to any county fair in the state.

Geo. F. Wessels is rushing off goods now in store at greatly reduced prices, to make room for his fall and winter stock. Now is the time to buy. Come around while the rush is on. Everybody is astonished at the prices at which goods are being sold at this establishment.

John W. Hartley wants all the people to know that his green grocery is constantly stocked with every variety of vegetables, fresh from the gardens. Also every kind of fruit. Fresh lemons and oranges received daily. Spring chickens always on hand.

Mr. J. P. Marsh begs leave to inform the citizens of Decatur and Macon county that he is now ready to attend to any business in his line, which is a general boot and shoe store. Making work to order will be made a specialty, and any who may favor me with their trade will have satisfaction guaranteed in every particular. I shall work nothing but the best French stock, and employ none but first-class workmen. I have employed Mr. J. W. Armstrong as cutter and fitter, and having had upwards of thirty years' experience myself in the business, we don't propose to have our work surpassed by any. Give us a call. No suit, no pay.

August 12, 1873—d1w-w2t.

Still Victorious.—Some seven years have passed since Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER was first offered to the public for their trial and approval according to its merits, and its superiority over all Baking Powders and other means for making wholesome light sweet bread and biscuits has been established by their verdict. Still victorious, standing to-day in the estimation of thousands as the only safe and reliable powder to use. Those who have not should test it, as also his Special Flavorings, Nectarine, Vanilla, etc., which are not only equal but superior to anything ever used for flavoring cakes, pies, etc. [Aug 12 d2t w1

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attacks of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to go without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

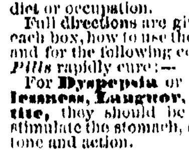
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,



For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild aperient, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar-coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution or diet or occupation.

Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor, and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action, or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back, and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion, and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
